Vessel Layout

Boarding FREEDOM is made easy by stepping onto her upgraded teak swim platform with 5 S/S safety rails and West Bay's optional fiberglass transom storage compartment.

Once through the portside transom door is the spacious teak cockpit sole and a circular table with four chairs.

Twin salon bulkhead doors provide entrance into the gorgeous salon. To port, a custom sofa fronted by a handsome wood table with glass top. To starboard a cozy easy chair with ottoman.

Forward of the salon and up three steps is the raised galley, dinette and lower helm station.

The lower level with it's three staterooms and two heads is accessed via a curved stairway on the starboard side. FREEDOM'S midships master and ensuite head is full beam and aft in the companionway. Forward and to port is guest cabin with twin bunks. Across to starboard, the shared guest head. And, all the way forward is the comfortable and cozy VIP cabin.

The flybridge and boat deck can be accessed via a built-in interior stairway between the dinette and the salon or a built-in fiberglass exterior stairway leading up from the cockpit.

Salon

Recently redecorated and richly appointed.

Warm and comfortable, open and inviting are words which come to mind when describing this special space aboard FREEDOM. The American Cherry joinery with it's satin finish is timeless and impeccable. Large oversized windows offer outstanding visibility whether at the dock, underway or at rest on anchor in a quiet cove.
